

WE ARE HIRING !

A PRODUCT

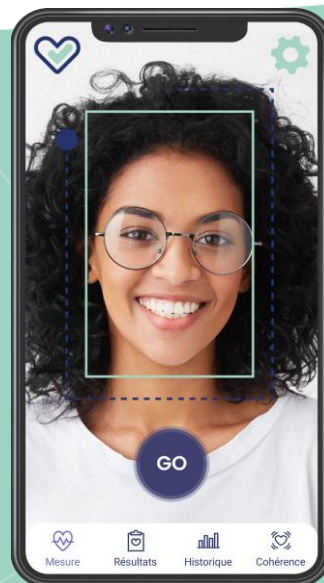

OWNER

i-Virtual

Created in 2014, I-Virtual is a company resulting from a laboratory of the University of Lorraine. Our company develops an advanced technology for measuring physiological variables by camera.

i-Virtual is aimed at the very attractive medical market with particular attention to the telemedicine and home care industries.

Today, the company is accelerating its growth and strengthening its teams and is looking for a Product Owner.

Profile

Training:

- Generalist, IT or Biomedical Engineer
- Mastery of project management tools: Jira or equivalent
- Knowledge of web technology and programming languages
- Desired experience in a similar position
- Autonomous / Rigorous
- Appreciated knowledge of Medical Device quality (ISO 13485, 62304, etc.)
- English language proficiency

Missions

- Project management, feature proposal, specification writing, testing and validation of new implementations
- Participation in the management of the backlog: drafting and prioritization of requests and bugs
- Commercial support: demonstration, installation, training, technical assistance
- Support for field experiments: implementation, definition of Kpi, monitoring, assistance, feedback
- Marketing support: scientific monitoring, event missions, creation of tutorials, writing of user guides and documentation
- Additional missions: training of employees, management of the internal organization, involvement in the company's strategy.

#METZ
#PARIS
#STARTUP
#CDI
#SANTÉ

Contact us

recrutement@i-virtual.fr give us details about yourself including your resume.

i-Virtual